Only from Suffolk Acre for the membership. Letters were written to Graeme Harris, Brian Mitchum and Mike Poulter – re- Bonfire Night. Graeme has agreed to join the committee as has Mike and who is again willing to let us use his electricity on Bonfire Night.

6. Bonfire Night 4th November 2007

Meeting taken up mostly with this item where various aspects were discussed. Martin will have a word with Brian Mitchum to check that it is ok for our usual venue. Briefly the main issue was how much to charge for entry and this was agreed at £5 per adult with children free. With Graeme coming on board he has a first aider in his team who we can call on in an emergency; also he can provide us with emergency flares and walkie talkies – this will be talked about at later meeting. It was agreed to continue to sell hot dogs and burgers, cold drinks and to try hot chocolate for the first time. Hopefully Les and Anne will still be able to do their mulled wine – Martin will have a word. Roy Cocksedge will again be able to get us the orange safety netting and it was agreed this would need to be around the bonfire too. Brian & Chris will do the bonfire helping the elderly only. Graeme brought up the question of which crops would be on the fields and Alison has contact with Rougham Estate Office and agreed to find this out. Advertising would be discussed at later meeting – Parish Mag, boards etc.
