

Christmas Eve December 24th 2020.

After torrential rain the previous evening Hesselton woke up to flood waters along The Street.

Water at 10.45 am.

It had gone down a considerable amount by then.

The debris (leaves & twigs) mark the level the water ended up before receding.

